4 27. Arrangement for simplifying the design and implementation of mobile services in a communication system, especially a telecommunications system, said system comprising distributed hardware and software components which interact in order to provide services to one or more users, said system also comprising means for supporting transparency, for example access, location, failure, relocation, etc.,

characterized by introducing in said system means for a mobility transparency, for thereby enabling facilitated application design including inter alia terminal or personal mobility transparency, and that said mobility transparency means are adapted to hide all the necessary mechanism and functions, for thereby supporting mobility to the application in question and to the application designer.

28. Arrangement as claimed in claim 27, characterized in that said mobility transparency means are added in addition to already existing transparency, for example in
